On multiple occasions, ROBLOX has been hacked into by outside sources. In one of the more recent hacks (2021), hackers took advantage of an exploit to provide themselves with unlimited build tools in games. Users without knowledge of the exploit were forced to leave the game because the tools were infinite and other players could not stop them. This issue was not fixed until two days later. [9] ROBLOX has a rule against using bots (automated scripts that allow players to automatically perform actions) but this rule can be easily bypassed due to the fact that users are able to easily create incredibly powerful bots with simple scripting. The easier ROBLOX makes it for users to create powerful scripts, the more likely they are going to be used in botting and/or spamming games. This is one of the reasons why user-created games like "The Plaza" have been taken down.

Hacking Roblox is not only limited to hacking a person's account by using someone else's information. There are also methods of hacking Roblox accounts that do not involve stealing another person's information. One of the more simple ways of hacking Roblox accounts is through DDoS attacks. An attacker uses a botnet and sends out requests for data on the target's server, causing it to become overwhelmed and crash. This can be done to any website, including Roblox.

ROBLOX's Terms of Service has many loopholes which allows users to get away with nearly anything, such as selling products that have been stolen from other users or using bots for their own gain. The system is also very inconsistent in how it deals with complaints and bans. One of the more infamous examples is user "Sephiroth", who had been banned for attempting to distribute his game, "TitanMC". The ban was eventually lifted, and the account became widely regarded as a joke.[11]

For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

Roblox offers a tremendous amount of games and features which, once you have played, can easily be overwhelming. If this is the case for you, keep it simple when creating your own roblox games. Choose a theme that is highly in demand right now or create something compatible with the standard ones. A simple game project can be as easy as tapping and holding three fingers on the screen to throw balls of fire at your opponents' faces. Do not worry if no one plays your game, since this will happen when the topic becomes old news among other players.
