On September 11, 2021, Roblox announced that they would be adding new systems to help curb and prevent problems like "Miner's Haven". They stated that users who are reported for breaking these rules will be put on a probationary moderation period, or P-mod. P-mods can say they had violated these rules for up to 72 hours. If the user continues to break the rules and continue breaking it after 72 hours, Roblox will issue a permanent ban for both the user and their account. The users who are in this moderation period will not be able to play Roblox games until 72 hours pass from when the user is released from the P-mod status. The users will also receive a warning from Roblox before they are released from the P-mod status.

On January 1st 2021, ROBLOX released a new core version update for their engine. They are now using a new source engine called "Bloxlet" and integrated a new built-in physics engine into the game. This feature will allow users to play in one of three different modes: Classic ROBLOX mode which uses the older physics system from ROBLOX, Bloxlet mode which uses the new physics system in ROBLOX 2.0 and fixed bugs, and Customized mode which allows players to customize their own physics setting. This update was expected to start being released in-game on January 15th 2021.[101] This release ended up having some bugs which caused users to get stuck in the game and crashes.[102] However an update was released a few days later, which fixed most of the bugs and added more control for players to customize their suitable physics settings.
